

MORNING APPEAL

WEDNESDAY.....JUNE 12

It is possible that Stanley, the explorer, will now confirm one of the versions of Swedenborg, who declared that in the heart of Africa dwelt the remnant of the Lost Tribes of Israel. Stanley holds to the opinion that somewhere in the unexplored regions of Africa there will be found white or light-colored people. This belief, it seems, was also indulged in by Livingston. But the people must be found before we begin to speculate on their origin.

The divers who tried to go down into the braising Idaho mine at Grass Valley, failed to get below the 900-foot level. The heat at that depth was so great that their rubber suits melted at the wristbands and their helmets became so hot they could not endure them. Diving into a burning mine and into the sea are slightly different, with the chances of success more in favor of the latter.

The hot weather, or some other cause, has made the honey bees of Owens Valley cease gathering honey. Such being the case the bee will lose prestige as the champion industrious chap, and hereafter when one feels a little shiftless he wont be told to pattern after the busy bee.

It is very evident that a lady reporter did not do the Folsom-Perrine wedding for the Chicago Herald. The gifted artist of the wardrobe informs the public that the bride wore her hair, "which is silvery gray, fancifully propped up in front." "Pompadoored," man, not "propped," is what you want say!

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

Travel over the Oregon road is very heavy.

T. D. Featherly, a cigar-maker at Butte, M. T., committed suicide Sunday.

O'Connor defeated Lee in a race on Salt Lake Sunday. The water was rough.

Henry's stable and six horses at Fresno were burned Saturday morning by an incendiary.

Bob Campbell, or "Three-fingered Jack," killed Hugh Boyd, near Acton, Los Angeles county, last Saturday.

One of the bunco men who robbed ex-Congressman Haskins in Los Angeles has jumped his bonds, which are worthless.

The ship Hagerstown arrived at San Francisco Sunday from Newcastle, 119 days out, with coal for Spreckles Bros. The ship was almost without rigging, having been in two hurricanes.

Mrs. Lizzie McGregor of San Francisco slipped and came near falling on the railroad platform at Aptos Sunday, breaking open a healing wound. It was with difficulty that her life was saved.

The body of a dead man was found three miles west of Sacramento, in Yolo county, Sunday. He had letters from Los Angeles on his person. His name is believed to be Milo Hawes. He is supposed to have been murdered by tramps.

BEES IDLING.—Bee keepers at Independence say that their bees are making very little honey. The hives appear to be healthy and full of bees, but for some unknown reason the insects are not gathering honey. Mr. Muth-Rasmussen keeps a hive on platform scales and he says that during the whole week it has not increased in weight to exceed one pound.—Inyo Independent.

THE WOMAN LAWYER'S ARGUMENT.—Lady lawyer—I demand the discharge of my client, your honor.

Counsel for plaintiff—May I ask upon what grounds?

Lady lawyer—Well—he can e.
